The Eureka Stock Farm Without Reserve or By-Bidding

(Owned by Edwd. Fuhrman)

Thursday, January 18, 1917, at 3 o'clock

Cause of Sale: Closing up of affairs preparatory to removal to Buffalo, Wyoming

This farm is located four miles north-east of Oregon, Missouri, County Seat of Holt County, which is the terminus of the Oregon Interurban Railroad, which connects with the Burlington, at Forest City, 35 miles from St. Joseph.

The Oregon Interurban is a thoroughly equipped, standard gauge railroad, four miles in length, making connections with twelve trains a day on the main line of the Burlington.

Population of Oregon, 1200. Oregon is a thoroughly progressive city with a modern $25,000 High School. Every branch of business represented. Two of the best banks in the state. City growing rapidly, substantial improvements, electric lights, water works and paved streets. In fact, an ideal town to live in or live adjacent to.

DESCRIPTION OF FARM TO BE SOLD

This is absolutely one of the best farms in North-west Missouri, and consists of one hundred and sixty acres of rolling prairie land, in a high state of cultivation. Ten acres of timber land, two miles east of farm. Farm is approached by two main county roads. A modern home, of ten room house with full basement, divided into two cellars, furnace room, coal bin and laundry room. Acetylene light plant in small cave outside of house. Good big wood house. Smoke house and closet, also house for the handling of milk. Ice house that will hold twenty loads. House has air pressure tank, cold and hot water up and down stairs. Bath on first floor and toilet up stairs. Hen houses for 250 hens. Basement barn, 40 X 40, with shed and crib attached; one crib barn, 16 X 42. One hay barn, 16 X 42, with implement shed on one side and feed shed on the other side. Three box stalls for bulls and studs. A garage with two bins, also room for two wagons and buggies. Hog house, 28 X 80, with sixteen pens. Cistern, with filter and three wells. A good wind mill. Place is watered also by creek that starts on farm. A large reservoir. Fine orchard just ready to bear. Fine lot of small fruit just coming into bearing. One standard Fairbanks scale and house.

This farm is all well fenced and cross fenced, good as new. There is forty acres of grass on this farm, also fifteen acres of alfalfa. The house and improvements have not been built over five years and are in perfect repair.

One mile to school. One mile and a quarter to church.

One of the best of neighborhoods and among a class of people that are progressive and up to date. Anyone buying this farm will certainly be proud of their purchase.

Any one that is interested in the purchase of a good model farm with all modern improvements, ready to go to living, should not miss this great sale.

forget the date.
—J. R. Krusor has traded the hardware stock to a Mr. J. C. Kendrick, of Liberty, Mo., and the stock is being invoiced this week. It is reported that Mr. Kendrick is an old hardware man; that he will add to the stock, move his family here and by square dealing and keeping what the people in this vicinity want, build up a hardware trade that has been going to other towns in this vicinity for the past several years.
—A series of revival meetings began at the Mt. Calvary church, west of town, Saturday evening. Miss Anna Chuning and Miss Emma Hurr were here from Tabors, Iowa, and conducted the services Saturday evening, Sunday and Sunday evening, returning to Tabors, Monday morning. The meetings will continue for an indefinite time, depending on the attendance and interest taken by the people, under the direction of the local members of the church in this vicinity, and we are requested to announce that this is everybody's meeting and that everybody is invited to attend.
—Allen Notley met with what might have been a serious accident, one morning, last week, when he was coming to town in his "Tin Willie" Ford car. When a short distance north of the J. F. Bridgman old home a spindle bolt broke on the left front wheel, turning the car upside down in the ditch at the side of the road. When the car had settled down Allen crawled out without a scratch. Out side of a broken top and windshield, as usual with the "Tin Willie," there was very little damage, and "Nub" says he is mighty glad that he was not running 40 miles an hour when the bolt broke.
—The Holt County Medical society gathered at the office of Dr. F. E. Hogan, last Thursday, January 4th, with the following members present: Dr. H. T. Quigley, Dr. R. R. Miller, Dr. J. T. Tracey, Dr. J. M. Davis, Dr. F. E. Bullock, Dr. J. F. Chandler, Dr. W. S. Wood, and Dr. F. E. Hogan. Resolutions of sympathy and condolence were voted for Dr. C. L. Evans, of Oregon, who was seriously injured some time ago by falling on an icy side walk. Social and scientific subjects were freely discussed. Considerable business pertaining to the betterment of the society was transacted. The following officers were elected: Dr. J. F. Chandler, of Oregon, president; Dr. F. E. Bullock, of Forest City, vice-president; Dr. C. L. Evans, of Oregon, treasurer; Dr. W. S. Wood, of Oregon, secretary; Dr. R. R. Miller, of Mound City, delegate to the State Convention, and Dr. J. M. Davis, alternate.
—It was a big jolly crowd that gathered at the hall of Bigelow Camp, No. 35, last Saturday evening to attend the annual installation of the officers of the Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen of the Circle and for a brief words told the object of the meeting and introduced State Manager, Sov. W. H. Hughes, of St. Louis, Mo., as the installing officer. Then came the impressive ceremony of installing the officers for the coming year for both orders by Sov. Hughes, in his usual good style. Owing to the large crowd and the crowded condition of the hall, the space for this important ceremony was limited. The following officers were installed for the Woodmen Circle: Mrs. Stella Dodson, guardian; Mrs. Anna Adkinson, adviser; Mrs. Minnie Waggoner, banker; Miss Ida Bridgman, clerk; Miss Bernice Morris, chaplain; Miss Zoe Morris, attendant; Miss Emma Selkman, assistant attendant; Miss Bertha Morris, inner sentinel; Miss Minnie Crow, outer sentinel; B. O. Adkinson and V. A. Solleder, managers. For Bigelow Camp, No. 35: T. J. Bridgman, consul commander; Guy Jones, adviser; C. H. Taylor, banker; Chas. Morris, escort; G. A. Conway, clerk; Luther Adams, watchman; Allen Smith, sentry; Dr. F. E. Hogan, physician; W. H. Wilson, manager. It is predicted that with this set of officers for both orders in history as one of the very best in the life of the orders. After installation ceremonies came interesting talks from each of the following visitors of St. Joseph, who are members of the Woodmen Circle: Mrs. Helen Loomis, district manager for Northwest Missouri; Mrs. A. J. Gordon, Mrs. Ada Neilson, Mrs. Lillian Zirkle, Mrs. Hattie Reichert, Mrs. Ray Catron, and Mrs. Josie Dempsey. Next on the program was Sov. W. H. Hughes with an excellent fraternal talk, who in his pleasing way, told us all about the big benefits to be derived from being a member of both orders. Sov. Hughes is thoroughly familiar with both orders, and is an extra good speaker. He is one of those few city men you meet that you can say "Hello, Billy, how are you?" to, and feel glad deep down in your heart that you had met him. Billy was limited to a two-hour talk, but cut it short, and every one was very much pleased with his address. Next on the program were short talks by Consul Commander Porter, of Mound City, and by other members of that camp, who were glad to have our guests. Then came the big feed. There were oysters for everybody, and to spare, and we want to take advantage of this opportunity to join the members of Bigelow Camp, No. 35, in complimenting the ladies of the Circle on the excellent service for feeding such a large crowd. Everybody was more than pleased and returned to their homes in the wee small hours of the morning, feeling glad they had come, and to the visiting members of both orders we say "come again," we were more than glad to have you—the latch string always hangs out for you. In the fall of 1906, Bigelow Camp, No. 35, by the destruction of the J. L. Chuning two-story brick building by fire, found itself without a place to hold their meetings, and meetings were held in the stores and for a short time in the school house, and during this time plans were started by prominent members of the camp to build a building of our own, and the lot on which had stood the old Chuning building was purchased by the camp. The camp was incorporated under the state laws of Missouri. Money was borrowed on the camp's money from members of the camp and prominent citizens, $1,180.00 being secured in this way, and $147 was donated. This money was deposited in the bank, and in the spring of 1907 the contract for the present building was let to Sov. W. S. Vandeventer, at that time a resident of Mound City, but who is now a resident of Conception Junction, Mo. When this building was completed, $2,500.00 was borrowed from the county, and a mortgage was given to secure its payment. This mortgage, together with the notes, was cleaned up during the past year, and the camp is out of debt, the building fund showing a net business transaction to date of $12,177.94, thanks to the loyalty of the members and such citizens as Mr. J. F. Bridgman and the late Henry Jones, who gave the camp their hearty support. With a population of 150 people, it is doubtful if there is another lodge in the great big state of Missouri which can boast of a membership of 240 members in good standing, owning their own home, valued at $4,000. The following six members, of the latter members, are still living and hold their membership here, and who hold the record of having never had their names placed on the suspension list of the order, which is a record that each one may well feel proud of: Sov. J. W. Gresham, certificate No. 4364; Sov. W. L. Catron, certificate No. 4365; Sov. L. W. Notley, certificate No. 4388; Sov. H. A. Borchers, certificate No. 4389; Sov. R. L. Bridgman, certificate No. 4446, and Sov. G. H. Bradbury, certificate No. 4752. All of these members joined the order in the fall of 1894. Very few members who have joined this camp, who have moved, have moved their membership and this is represented by nineteen members in the state of Nebraska, 5 in Iowa, 3 in Wyoming, 1 in Montana, 3 in Texas, 5 in Colorado, 4 in Kansas, 1 in California, 1 in North Dakota, 1 in Oklahoma and 1 in the province of Saskatchewan, Canada, which is ample proof that those members who have moved to other states are very well pleased with the business policy and ability of the officers elected from year to year by the members of this camp.
